ALMIGHTY and merciful God, of whose gift is cometh that thy faithful people do unto thee worthy and laudable service: grant, we beseech thee; that we may run without stumbling to thy heavenly promises. Through. Amen.

O GOD, who didst enkindle blessed John thy Confessor with wondrous zeal to set forward the worship of the sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, and through him didst will to gather together new families in thy Church: grant, we beseech thee; that we who venerate his godly merits may likewise be taught by the example of his godly conversation.

ALmighty and everlasting God, who didst assume the immaculate Virgin Mary, Mother of thy Son, in body and soul to heavenly glory: grant, we beseech thee; that we, ever setting our affections on things above, may likewise be partakers of that glory in the world to come. Through. Amen.

EPISTLE

II Corinthians 3.4

The Lesson from the Epistle of blessed Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians.

BRETHREN: Such trust have we through Christ to Godward: not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves: but our sufficiency is of God: who also hath made us able ministers of the New Testament: not of the letter, but of the Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giveth life. But if the ministration of death written and engraven in stones was glorious; so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away: how shall not the ministration of the Spirit be rather glorious? For if the ministration of condemnation be glory: much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

GRADUAL - Benedicam Dominum

I will always give thanks unto the Lord: his praise shall ever be in my mouth. = My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

ALLELUIA - Domine Deus salutis

Alleluia, alleluia. = O Lord God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before thee. Alleluia.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

S. Luke 10.23

AT that time: Jesus said unto his disciples: Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see. For I tell you, That many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them: and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. And behold, a certain lawyer stood up; and tempted him, saying: Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him: What is written in the Law? how readest thou? And he answering said: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind: and thy neighbour as thyself. And he said unto him: Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live. But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus: And who is my neighbour? And Jesus answering said: A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment; and wounded him, and departed leaving him half dead. And by chance there came down a certain Priest that way: and, when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and, when he saw him, he had compassion on him. And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him: Take care of him: and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee. Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among thieves? And he said: He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him: Go, and do thou likewise.

OFFERTORY - Precatus est Moyses

Moses besought the Lord his God, and said: Why, O Lord, doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people? Turn from thy fierce wrath: remember Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to whom thou swarest to give a land flowing with milk and honey. And the Lord repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.
